

Kate de Ban

Programme Manager for the Oxford Leadership Academy

email: kate.deban@oxfordleadership.com

Kate de Ban is Programme Manager for Oxford Leadership Academy.

She is a specialist in managing programme solutions for our corporate clients and supporting our Fellows and Associates in running Open and invitational programmes.

Having previously run her own financial services company, Kate brings a strong portfolio of financial consultancy, media, production and technical skills to her work with the Oxford Leadership Academy.

As an Executive Committee Member, Kate is also responsible for the growth, development of the Oxford Leadership Academy Worldwide. She is a results-orientated and focused member of the OLA Management Team.

In her professional engagements with OLA, Kate uses her strong analytical, common sense and logical reasoning abilities, and is guided by a strong sense of personal responsibility and integrity.

Kate is responsible for project management and client work involving CoVision, a partner company specialising in Fast Feedback collaborative loops into AGMs, large-scale client meetings, company takeovers and deep system change-processes.

Kate has worked with Telefónica Corporate University, Telefónica o2 Germany and Telefónica o2 UK, AkzoNobel, Sandvik, Horwarth International, Unilever, Vedior, Crowe and Girl Scouts USA.

Kate holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Film and Media Studies from the University of Stirling and the University of California, Santa Barbara. She has trained with ICA in facilitating focused conversations and consensus workshops and is a certified CTT consultant.

Kate is also an FA qualified football coach and manages a Women's Football team that play in the Thames Valley Counties Sunday league.