
EXECUTIVE PROFILE

Caroline Montel
FELLOW

“Caroline has among others, two great qualities: she’s very assertive & able to lead & motivate teams. As an example she has been elected as our promotion’s representative! She’s enthusiastic & a great professional, very pro-active, she’s willing to share with colleagues & support team building!”

Arnaud de Lamotte
Sales Director
Large Accounts Solutions & Services
LEXMARK International

“Caroline was a trustworthy partner, fully dedicated to help me reach my objectives in a large-scale change management program. Her smart thinking and industry expertise were great assets amid difficult situations I had to face.”

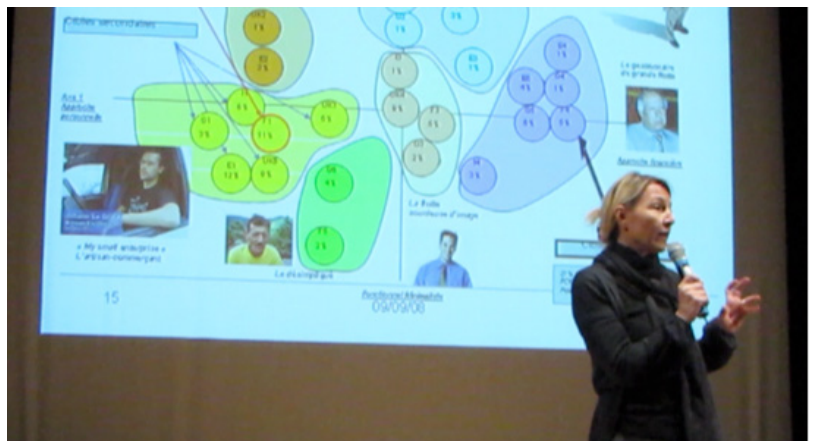

Jacques Claude
Chairman and CEO
Gutenberg Networks

Caroline Montel is a Fellow of Oxford Leadership. She has been a Consultant and a Certified Business Coach focusing on Leadership, Communication, Strategic Alignment, and Assessments for Senior Managers and Leaders for more than 20 years. Caroline is based in France.

Caroline combines an acute understanding of self-positioning, management and communication. Her insights help clients to manage their image and communication to become more assertive in their leadership.

She prepares leaders to face the issues such as emotion and stress management, communication, motivation, emotional intelligence, decision-making and problem-solving.

Previously, Caroline was Managing Director of marketing services companies for Havas Advertising for 10 years. She managed 80 people and built marketing plans, positioning and advertising for majors brands such as Nestlé, Energizer, SNCF and RATP.

She graduated from the Advanced Management Program from Essec Business School, attained a certificate in Business Coaching from the Centre International du Coach in Paris, with a degree in Appreciative Inquiry Management and Business Systemic Approach.

She is a speaker for a women forum’s network circuit on the subjects of leadership, performances and self-esteem.

Caroline works in English and French.