
EXECUTIVE PROFILE

Jetske van Heusden

FELLOW

“Now, I can understand more deeply how I will improve my personal and work life. The training gave possibilities to obtain a lot of new information about colleague life - not only about business, but about personal carrier. Training gives me new ways of how to look towards the future.”

Ivo Pastor
HR Manager
AkzoNobel, Czech Republic

“Our management group had three fantastic days. After the leadership journey the dialogue has become more open, professional and courageous. There is a real difference in how we relate to each other which contributes to the long term productivity of the group.”

Marita Odélius Engström
CEO
Fora, Sweden

Jetske is a Fellow of Oxford Leadership. She is a seasoned Leadership & Talent Development Professional, Certified Coach and Facilitator. Jetske’s background is in Human Resources Development & Instructional Design, and she currently studies Work & Organisational Psychology. Jetske is based in the Netherlands.

Since 2011, while working with ING Insurance as a Senior Consultant in Leadership Development, Jetske has been involved in major (cultural) change programmes and leadership development initiatives. From early 2008 till late 2011, she was Programme Manager with ING’s Business School, responsible for the design and delivery of various Leadership Development programmes for ING’s top management and high potentials. In this role she was also acting as an Internal Coach and Facilitator. Prior to that, she held various roles in the area of Learning & Development, HR Development, Procurement and Insurance.

She aims to help people connect both with themselves with others, in order to create a better understanding. In a business context this takes shape by helping leaders to grow. Her fundamental belief is that all people are naturally creative, resourceful and whole.

She is certified through CTI (Coaches training Institute), and is a Certified Professional Co-Active Coach (CPC) and holds the Associate Certified Coach credentials with the International Coach Federation. She graduated from CTI’s Leadership Programme. Jetske also is a Hay Group accredited executive coach in Emotional Intelligence, a certified MBTI practitioner and a certified Cultural Transformation Tools consultant through the Barrett Values Centre.

Jetske works in Dutch and English.
